

Instructions: print pictures on a white printing paper. Cut along the lines and glue each picture on a red card (colour coding for mammals). Mark each pair with the same symbol for control of error then laminate cards for durability.