

Instructions: print two copies of pictures on white printing paper. Cut along the lines and glue on red cards (colour coding for mammals). Mark each pair with the same symbol as control of error then laminate cards for durability.